

Two Global Digital Media Competitions for Schools!

Projects due March 2008

- *Support standards-based, authentic learning
- *Connect students to their local communities
 - *Increase global awareness
 - *Employ real world, transferable skills
 - *Engage students in the assessment
- *Teach students 21st century learning skills workforce readiness research, project management, content creation, publishing, digital media

Doors to Diplomacy Global Issues for middle school & high school students $2,000 scholarships and cash school awards sponsored in part by the US State Deptment focus on global issues including world leadership, environment, economics, science, culture

CyberFair: Empower & Unite! Community Connections

for grades 3-12

co-sponsored by the World Future Society
& the Project Management Institute focus on local community issues including local history, culture, business, leaders, art, music, sports, health, environment

GlobalSchoolNet.org